OUR OPENING SONG

*I want to wake up in the morning
Where the orange blossoms grow,
And the sun comes peeping
Into where I'm sleeping
And the song birds say hello.
I want to wander in the orange grove
As I used to long ago,
And go drifting back to Florida
Where the orange blossoms grow...*

This week's program
 Steve Gardner
 Executive Director of Orlando Int'l Airport

On July 28th, 2009 we held a Club Assembly hosted by our Rotary Club of Cocoa President Pat Hare. Pat spoke to us about the Rotary International Presidential Citation criteria and gave each board member in attendance the opportunity to discuss their avenue of service.

This year's Presidential Citation program provides a menu of challenging activities related to the first six priorities of the strategic plan. The activities also offer opportunities to address each of the four Avenues of Service, as well as an emphasis in the areas of health and hunger, literacy, and water. Our club should complete the membership goal and an activity from three of the six categories as described in the Presidential Citation brochure (three activities in total) between 1 July 2009 and 31 March 2010. The scope of the activities should be in proportion to the number of members in your club and their abilities, interests, and skills.

Rotaract and Interact clubs are integral to Rotary's future and are encouraged to participate in the 2009-10 Presidential Citation program. To qualify for the citation, Rotaract and Interact clubs must complete at least two activities overall from any of the categories or participate significantly in at least two activities of their sponsor club.

Achieve growth through a net increase of at least one member by 31 March 2010. (The club's membership as of 31 March 2010 must be greater than its membership as of 1 July 2009.)

Menu of Activities

Eradicate Polio - Through Rotary's fundraising challenge, we can finish this crucial job and keep our promise to the world.

Advance the recognition and public image of Rotary - To attract new members and cooperation from other organizations, we should promote our local and global service activities to the media and to our communities.

Increase Rotary's capacity to provide service - Rotary clubs are encouraged to continue their efforts to address water, health and hunger, and literacy issues by volunteering more time, talent, and enthusiasm along the four Avenues of Service.

Expand membership globally in both numbers and quality - Everything that Rotary hopes to accomplish depends on its members, and each of us is responsible for bringing in qualified new members.

Emphasize Rotary's unique vocational service commitment - By demonstrating our strong commitment to high ethical standards in our professional lives, we can provide a model for our colleagues, our employees, and our customers and distinguish Rotary from other service and humanitarian organizations.

Optimize leadership talents within RI - Strong leaders are essential to Rotary's future, and each of us should strive to be better leaders in our clubs, our professions, and our communities.

As we embark together on our year as Rotary leaders, I ask for your support in making 2009-10 a very successful and fulfilling Rotary year. One of my main objectives is to remind Rotarians of their personal responsibility to Rotary and its ideals, as exemplified by our theme: The Future of Rotary Is in Your Hands.
