“Celebrate Rotary”

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST. The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND. High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian’s occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD. The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian’s personal, business, and community life;

FOURTH. The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

OUR OPENING SONG

*I want to wake up in the morning
Where the orange
blossoms grow,
And the sun comes peeping
Into where I’m sleeping
And the song birds say hello.
I want to wander in the orange grove
As I used to long ago,
And go drifting back to Florida
Where the orange
blossoms grow...*

Joe Hartwig, with Brevard County Special Olympics (BCSO), was the featured speaker for the day. He became involved with Special Olympics way back in 1976 when he was in college. The organization itself was formed in 1968 by Eunice Kennedy Schriver; it became active in Florida in 1972. This is Joe's ninth year with BCSO, but it is his 24th year over-all. Karen Rood was responsible for Joe's becoming involved with the BCSO. The mission of Special Olympics is to provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for persons eight years of age and older with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics' athletes and the community.

Program Coordinator Mike Arnold, Joe Hartwig with the Brevard County Special Olympics, and Cocoa Rotary Club President Jay Schenck.

About 1,000 kids in Brevard County qualify for the Special Olympics, but only approximately 100-150 are physically competent to play in sports. Some of the sports include golf, bicycling, volleyball, bowling, basket ball, aquatics, and track. Transportation costs, because of the price of gas, have doubled, and the BCSO has only a yearly operating budget of $50,000. In addition, teams now have to rent gymnasiums and carry a million dollars worth of liability.

The BCSO participants do many things for themselves: they do a factory line set up; do recycling at Patrick Air Force Base four days a week; some done at the Cape. They are supported by the state to a degree, but group homes are dwindling. Therefore, Joe came to the Club on behalf of the young athletes who compete in BCSO to ask for assistance for purchasing uniforms for the track team. Usually, 50-55 athletes are taken to the state track meet. Other Special Olympic teams have matching uniforms; the BCSO does not. Joe stated that $1,500 should cover the costs. Jack Rood stated he would match whatever was given by the Club members; last count – over $2,000! Way to go Cocoa Rotary! We're good!
